

lecture: Auctions: Theory, Applications, and Experimental Evidence

time and location: monday, 12-2pm, room M811 (mathbuilding)

first session: April 16th

This lecture is part of the Master-module ‘Mikroökonomie II (Microeconomics)’.

Syllabus:

- Case Study: The ‘3G’ Mobile-Phone Auctions
Paul Klemperer (2004) ‘Auctions: Theory and Practice’ Princeton University Press
- Theory I
Vijay Krishna (2010) ‘Auction Theory’ 2nd edition Elsevier Academic Press
- Experiments
John Kagel and Dan Levin (2002):
‘Common Value Auctions and the Winner’s Curse’ Princeton University Press
- Theory II: Allpay Auctions
Ron Siegel (2009) All-Pay Contests, Econometrica
- Case Study II: The Design of Treasury Bond Auctions
Joe Swierzbinski and Tilman Börgers (2004) in ‘Auctioning Public Assets: Assets and Alternatives’ Maarten Janssen (editor)
Cambridge University Press

Textbooks (available as legal download!):

- Paul Klemperer ‘Auctions Theory and Practice’ (2004)
- Vijay Krishna ‘Auction Theory’ (2010)